The best notary I've ever worked with! Phil really went out of his way to help me with the final process of a succession from out of state. He is extremely professional and was so helpful and knowledgeable about what needed to be done. I felt so much better after working with him. Any stress I had immediately went away. He is so kind and easy to talk to as well. I would reach out to Phil again and again for any future needs when it comes to notary work. Give him a call ASAP if you need any help! You will not be disappointed!

Philip was a very professional, very helpful and very thorough notary. He was immediately available when I found myself in need of a notary, and was patient through the entire process of signing closing paperwork. I had an excellent experience and will absolutely contact him if I need a notary again!

A few weeks ago I need a mobile notary in the Denver area. I'm in Houston, Texas. After a Google search, I began calling and trying find a notary who could my needs. I needed someone who was patient enough to deal with multiple senior citizens, print documents and mail them back to me. After not being satisfied with most notaries I spoke with or emailed, I decided to buy a ticket and fly there my self. However, my schedule did not permit that. So I decided to try one more, Mr. Phil Wilson of Freedom Notary Service. His website was efficient, easy to navigate and provided all the information needed. He assured me that he could handle all my needs and did so promptly with a great attitude. He was efficient, on time and professional even after being harassed by a homeless man. I will highly recommend his services. Mr. Wilson is truly working hard to build a solid business with great reputation. Anyone needing notary services can count on Freedom Notary to deliver.

Phil has helped me out with a couple of tasks, and whether it's notary services or anything else, he always makes it quick and painless. I'm pretty bad about getting stuff like that done, and having Phil on speed dial makes it so easy. I genuinely wish I needed more documents notarized now. Thanks Phil!

Phil was an awesome person and knows what he's doing. Skip the bank or UPS they aren't worth it. I got my document rejected but not with Phil. He also provides online and Apostille which he has helped my family.

I just wanted to share my positive experiences, I have had working with Phil. I recently needed to have several legal documents notarized. Finding other positive reviews on google, I chose to go with Phil. It was very convenient since Phil is willing to travel. Phil was prompt, professional and took the time to explain everything I was signing. I would recommend Phil to anyone who needs a notary.

Phillip is a very kind and caring individual. I would highly recommend him to anyone looking for the service. He came to the hospital to help us do all our documents immediately. My family appreciates everything he did and just how professional he was. The accuracy and diligence he puts into his work is unmatched! Thank you Phillip!
